OUR MISSION: To re-establish
self-sustaining populations of these beautiful birds
in our province.

We are a non-profit society whose members want to help with the conservation of species and habitats in British Columbia.

Our members come from many backgrounds. Some are scientists, others have business backgrounds, many are students. In short, we come from all walks of life, but we share a common interest in wildlife and nature.

Your membership is very important to us, to hundreds of returning Burrowing Owls, and to future hatchings.

Burrowing Owls are charismatic little birds. Helping these owls also helps us with the stewardship of valuable grasslands which benefits many other species.
